Camp Dress Code

Hope Reins in Texas desires an environment that is honoring to God. For this reason, the following items below are requirements for dress for all Hope Reins Camps.

- Closed-toed shoes and pants are required for any participation in horse activities of any kind.
- No undergarments are to be seen at any time.
- All shirts should have appropriate coverage of the back, shoulder, and ribcage areas (i.e. no open sides, open backs, spaghetti straps, or sleeveless tops).
- No clothing with suggestive, illegal, or otherwise inappropriate pictures or wording.
- No excessively tight clothing. No leggings or yoga pants are allowed.
- When participating in any water activities, a shirt and swim shorts are required. For our girls camps, shirts and swim shorts will be required to be worn over the bathing suit. Please ensure that the bathing suit will not be seen through the wet shirt or shorts.

If you think an outfit or specific clothing item is questionable, then we ask that you respectfully choose another item to wear. Hope Reins in Texas reserves the right to refuse an item of clothing in accordance with our Christian standards, our desire for professionalism, and our attempts for the highest level of safety possible.

I, _____, acknowledge that I have read and reviewed the following Hope Reins Camp dress code policy with my child. I agree to take responsibility to ensure that any clothing worn on Hope Reins property or in connection with any Hope Reins Camp activity is in accordance and in respect to the aforesaid policy.
